

Prestigious International Award in Healthcare Sphere “Rose of Paracelsus” to IHBAS by the European Medical Association (EMA).

IHBAS has begged the prestigious International Award in Healthcare Sphere “Rose of Paracelsus” by the Socrates Nomination Committee of European Business Assembly, United Kingdom. The Award function was held on January 30-31, 2017 in Dubai, UAE.

This Award is a symbol of the reality of a medical institutions and its admirable reputation in the opinion of the patient. The main award criteria includes hospital overall performance, top level medical services, national & international accreditation, certification, participation international and local healthcare programmes, safety of treatment processes and feedback from patients.

This Award and all our other achievements are clearly the result of sincere hard work with commitment to high quality care on part of different categories of staff. The active interest and patronage by the Health & Family Welfare Department of the Government of NCT of Delhi has also helped in the overall improvement of IHBAS to this level, from the erstwhile custodial and infamous Hospital for Mental Diseases (HMD) in a span of two decades.

Dr. Nimesh G. Desai, Director IHBAS received “Rose of Paracelsus” award at Dubai.

